

*We're not invisible
We're here in plain sight
You just refuse to look
And understand our plight*

*We suffer in silence
As you smother our voice
We trusted the fraud
And made the wrong choice*

*Some of us have perished
Some of us remain
Those who have been damaged
Will never be the same*

*Those who have been injured
And in constant pain
These are the people
You seek to blame*

*You knocked us off balance
With jabs and gaslighting
But we remain steadfast
And we'll keep on fighting*

*We're not invisible
We're just not recognized
When even friends and family
Leave us feeling ostracized*

*You still flood the channels
With those deadly lies
As the losses mount
Before our eyes*

*With your mainstream madness
You deceive with impunity
While only the manufacturers
Are receiving immunity*

*You're on the wrong side of history
The wrong side of humanity
The wrong side of morality
And the wrong side of sanity*

*We stepped into a nightmare
That will not end
But we're resilient
And we will not bend*

*When the poisoned apple
Is offered anew
We won't take a bite
No more witches brew*

*We're not invisible
We have names and faces
Yet It seems like you would Rather erase us*
